VINTAGE

Winter was dry and very cold. The period from March to May was one of the warmest of the last few years with an early bud break and no frosts. Summer came to an end with high temperatures from 25th of August bringing forward a calm and balanced harvest, with yields somewhat higher than in 2010.

TASTING NOTES

Intense and powerful expression of fruit. Dense but accessible with ripe and polished tannins. Elegant and voluptuous on the palate, showing great roundness and a smooth character.

AGEING AND CONSUMPTION

Mauro 2011 was bottled in June 2013 after 16 months of ageing in French & American oak barrels of various ages. Maturity and opulence in a vintage bursting with fruit.
