VINTAGE

After a late, mild, and frost-free winter, spring started with light snow on March 20. The first half of the year enjoyed lavish rainfall with a slow transition to a summer of mild temperatures, which allowed a tranquil ripening until the harvest. In calm weather conditions and with juicy berries, Carramontemayor and El Rosal were harvested on September 13 and 19 respectively. Superlative vintage for its natural concentration, finesse and harmony.

TASTING NOTES

Overflowing fruitiness in a rich and varied aromatic palette. Energetic and classy, with an enveloping texture and formidable persistence.

AGEING AND CONSUMPTION

Mauro VS 2018 was bottled in February 2021 after 26 months in French oak barrels. One of the greats of the Duero in a magical vintage.
