VINTAGE

Autumn was mild and wet, with rain almost every day in November. In contrast, winter was dry and one of the warmest of the last decade. Spring arrived with a cold and wet front that delayed bud break until the end of April. The lushness of the vines demanded more trimming and green pruning. The entry of a mass of cold, dry air caused thermal ups and downs in the summer. The harvest began on 3 September and lasted 25 days with isolated rainy spells.

TASTING NOTES

Fragrant, full of red fruit and freshness, more length than width in its dimension. The delicacy of the ensemble and the dynamism of its tannic texture stand out.

AGEING

Bottled in April 2022 after 15 months of ageing in barrels and vats of French oak of different ages.
