VINTAGE

The wine-growing year started with mild temperatures and rain. In January, Storm Filomena left the vineyards covered with snow for several days. Spring was warm and dry. After almost two months without rain, some occasional rainstorms refreshed the vines in the last few days of ripening, at the end of August. The harvest began on 11 September in Traspinedo and on 22 September in the Rosal vineyard in Tudela. Outstanding quality with concentrated, balanced, and fine wines.

TASTING

Succulent, silky, with enormous fruit and impeccable maturity. Precise tannins and never-ending finish.

AGEING

Bottled in January 2024 after aging for 26 months in French oak barrels.
